PAY HERO TRIBUTE IN CITY SCHOOLS

Pupils and Officials Sing Patriotic Songs and Make Stirring Speeches.

Significance of Armistice day was impressed on the District's 63,000 public school children today at exercises held in virtually every school building. The programs, which were arranged at the direction of Superintendent of Schools Ballou, were varied and included music, recitations and patriotic addresses by pupils and school officials.

Perhaps the most impressive exerrises were held at Business High School. Students at this institution were led into the auditorium by Principal Allan Davis, where they viewed the photographs of the sixteen former pupils and a teacher who were killed in the world war. A more elaborate Armistice day program, however, is being planned for next week by Principal Davis.

Sing Patriotic Songs. Hymns and patriotic songs of the foreign nations represented at the conference on the limitation of armament featured the exercises at Western High School. The musical program was furnished by the glee club of the school. Another feature of Western's ceremonies was the read-Western's ceremonies was the reading by Principal Elmer S. Newton of Mary L. D. Macfarland's poem, "Who Is This Cometh with Bloodstained Garments?" which appeared in The Evening Star yesterday. Dr. Newton also avalained the significance of Evening Star yesterday. Dr. Newton also explained the significance of Armistice day to the student body. Speeches and recitations by the pupils composed the exercises at the Columbia Junior High School. The poem "An Unknown Soldier" was recited by Leonard Mikules, while Edith Langley gave "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address." Miss Alice Deat, principal of the school, read the editorial "Hats Off!" which appeared in Tuesday's Star. Others who took part in the program were Arthur Sack. the program were Arthur Sack, Marion Lasher, William Pippin, Ruth Buter, Bert Lasher, Judge Brown Francis Sandys and Herbert Bryant.

Outline Boys' Part in War. Events leading up to the armistice and the part American boys played in the world war were outlined by Bertha L. Gardner, member of the faculty of Eastern High School, at exercises at this institution. The program also included musical numbers by the school orchestra and patriotic recitations.

Reading of Pericles' oration over the Athenian dead from an ancient history featured the program at Central High School. An organ recital was given by Samuel Wood. Patriotic numbers were same wood. Pariotic tunbers were sung by the student body.

HYMN TO BE SUNG AT UNKNOWN BURIAL

At the ceremonies at Arlington tomorrow a feature will be the singing of a hymn, "The Supreme Sacrifice," which was also rendered at the services in Westminster Abbey when Gen. Pershing placed the congressional medal of honor upon the tomb of England's unknown soldier, on the morning of October 17 of this year

The words of the hymn are:

THE SUPREME SACRIFICE.

O valiant hearts, who to your glory came, Through dust of conflict and through battle flame; Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved, Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank to war, As who had heard God's message from afar; All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave To save mankind-yourself you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made, Into the light that nevermore shall fade; Deep your contentment in that blest abode, Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still, Rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill, While in the frailty of our common clay Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self-same way.

Still stands his cross from that dread hour to this, Like some bright star above the dark abyss; Still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes.

These were His servants, in His steps they trod, Following through death the martyr'd Son of God; Victor He rose; victorious, too, shall rise They who have drunk His cup of sacrifice.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our Dead, Whose cross has brought them and whose staff has led-In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land Commits her children to Thy gracious hand. Amen. JOHN'S. ARKWRIGHT.

ROTARIANS BRAVE DRIVING RAIN TO HONOR DISTRICT'S WORLD WAR DEAD

CHIMES PLAYED AT ARLINGTON RING OUT GLEAR AT MADISON SQUARE

NEW YORK, November 10 .-Homeward-bound crowds, scurrying and jostling through Madison Square toward the subways in the chill rain late yesterday afternoon were arrested by the deep-throated meledy of chimes ringing out, as in evening benediction, the strains of "Home, Sweet Home." The most of them gazed up toward the Metropelitan tower that loamed with blazing windows through the dark, thinking perhaps the familiar quarter-hour bells of the big clock had added bells of the big clock had added to their repertoire. The more inquisitive finally traced the music to a series of huge megaphone-like devices attached to the side of Madison Square Garden.

It is the final test of the telephone amplifying apparatus that is to connect New York with Arllington on Friday when the unknown soldier is laid to reat.

The chimes that sounded out so pure and true were struck at Arlington. Ington.

The test, made under most trying atmospheric conditions both here and in Washington, set at rest any fears officials of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company might have entertained as to the successful transmission to a New York audience of the Armistice day ceremonies.

Not only will 15,000 persons seated in Madison Square Garden be able to hear every word that is spoken, but also the music, the rattle of musketry and tape that will mark the end of the burial services. As many persons as can crowd into Madison Square Park will be able to hear equally well. It is estimated at least 50,000 will be able to listen to the ceremonies.
